Greetings to the Graduates

As we go through life, our progress is marked by special moments when we turn corners and new horizons open out before us. This convocation of scholars celebrates the happy observance of such an important turning point in your lives.

The ceremony is steeped in customs that have been passed down to us over the centuries. It is sedate, colorful, traditional, and meaningful. We hope you will enjoy the experience and will participate in the goodwill that permeates a day to be remembered.

By conferring its degrees, the University confirms that you have successfully fulfilled a rigorous course of study and have earned the right to enter into the collegiality of educated women and men. Be proud of what you have done, and be grateful for what the University has done for you.

Understand that the University of Alberta is not just the campus which you know so well. It is everything that our graduates of yesterday, today, and tomorrow accomplish to make our world a better place to live in. Today you join a worldwide community of alumni, a hundred thousand strong, whose support and interest is vital to the enhancement of the quality and the value of the degrees which you receive today. Keep in touch, and never forget the University that nurtured the mind you use every day. You entered to grow in wisdom. You leave the better to serve your community and yourselves.

Welcome and Congratulations.

Sandy Mactaggart
Chancellor

Paul Davenport
President and Vice-Chancellor

Universities began as small collections of scholars who worked together to preserve and advance knowledge. Students came to study with them and, in due course, an administrative structure arose to provide system and recognition for those studies. This ancient structure is preserved at the University of Alberta, with the faculty and the students providing the core of the University's purpose: teaching and the advancement of knowledge. The faculty's task is facilitated by their colleagues in the academic staff, the Faculty Service Officers, the Administrative Professional Officers and the Librarians, and the University's dedicated support staff.

The faculty, numbering some 1,600, is responsible for creating programs of study, for teaching, and for evaluating the learning of the student body, both undergraduate and graduate. In addition, faculty members are responsible for the scholarly reputation of the University by preserving and sharing knowledge and by pursuing new ideas and knowledge through their research.

The faculty and staff congratulate you, the graduates, on the successful completion of your present studies which is recognized by the degrees to which you are admitted today. Your achievement deserves praise. We hope your present knowledge provides a sound base for an education which will continue throughout a rewarding life. We would remind you of the advice given to graduands by Honorary Degree Recipient Dr Tommy Banks: "Try to be a good person. You will be amazed how rewarding it is."

Congratulations from the Faculty and Staff!

University Mace and Ceremonial Chairs

The University of Alberta Mace was designed and crafted specifically for the University as a gift from Dr Francis Phillip Galbraith, Chancellor of the University of Alberta from 1964 - 1970. It was presented by his son, Michael Galbraith, on behalf of his father on May 26, 1970.

Among its elements are: the Star of Saint Thomas Aquinas, the Patron Saint of Scholars; the Wild Rose of Alberta; the Maple Leaf; and the separate charges which make up the University's Coat of Arms. The University motto "Quaecumque Vera" ("Whatever Things Are True" Phil 4:8) encircles the staff. The Mace is made of sterling silver which was rhodium plated after the insertion of the various enamelled shields which make up its elements. A special electro-plate process was used to apply 24 carat gold to other parts of the Mace.

It was intended that the Mace should be modern in appearance but with medieval origins. The preponderance of visual weight at the top of the staff and the rather complex section through the metalwork at this point are reminiscent of the use of the mace as a weapon, defensive or aggressive.

The Mace is carried before the Chancellor, or Vice-Chancellor, in procession and rests on its stand in full view of the assembly during Convocation. Centuries ago the Mace was a symbol of authority over life and death. Today it represents power – but the power of knowledge and the importance of the University in the community.

The Chancellor's Chair was presented to the University of Alberta as a gift from the 1922 graduating class. It is made of solid oak with a padded leather back and seat. Above the padded leather back is carved the University motto "Quaecumque Vera" together with the class year, 1922, and the University coat-of-arms.

In 1987, the family and friends of Dr Charles Malcolm Macleod, Chair of the Board of Governors from 1950 to 1966, presented a memorial gift to the University of an oak stand for the University of Alberta Mace and two additional chairs for use by the President and the Chair of the Board of Governors at Convocation.

Convocation

In the eleventh century, a new vitality quickened all aspects of the civilization of Western Europe. The creative forces thus unleashed soon found expression in new institutions, and of these the university bids fair to be the most enduring. The modern university is the lineal descendant of the university of the Middle Ages. Its purposes and organization, even much of its ceremonial, are medieval in origin.

The medieval university was originally called a studium generale, that is, a place of learning to which teachers and students from anywhere resorted. The first studia were at Salerno, Bologna, and Paris. These came into existence spontaneously and developed through the twelfth century as the needs of the time and their inner necessities dictated. In the thirteenth century these spontaneous associations crystallized into guilds or corporations endowed by Church and State with specific privileges which guaranteed the internal autonomy necessary for the vocation of study. To these corporations was increasingly applied the word universitas denoting the entire group of those responsible for the transmission of higher learning and the pursuit of knowledge.

By the beginning of the fourteenth century, two forms of university organization had appeared. At Bologna, which was primarily a higher school of canon and civil law to which came men experienced in ecclesiastical and secular administration, the control of the studium generale passed to the students; hence Bologna was a universitas scholarum. On the other hand in Paris and Oxford, whose dominant faculty was the Faculty of Arts, the studium emerged under the direction of a guild of teachers, a universitas magistrorum. Through its own officials, notably the chancellor (once symbol of external control and by now of internal autonomy), the guild of teachers developed its courses of instruction, administered its own affairs and admitted to its company only those who had met its intellectual standards. The University of Alberta stands in the tradition of Paris and Oxford.

Originally the goal of the medieval student was certification by the guild of teachers that he also was qualified to teach (the licentia docendi). With the passage of time the student's progress through the curriculum was marked by ceremonies which signified his successful attainment of a certain level (gradus or in modern language, degree) of competence. The Bachelor had completed his apprenticeship in the Faculty of Arts. The Master was now qualified to teach in that Faculty and was thus incorporated into the universitas magistrorum. The Doctor was one who, having obtained the mastership, had successfully completed the curriculum of one of the "higher" faculties (in the Middle Ages, law, medicine, and theology) and was now qualified to teach in those faculties. Inevitably the degrees of the universitas did more than admit their holders to the teaching profession. They served the wider social purpose of demonstrating their holders' fitness to serve the entire medieval community.

Today's ceremony stems from the medieval tradition. The procession of the guild of teachers, whose solemn assembly, or convocation, is the modern equivalent of the medieval magna congregatio of all faculties, is led by the Chancellor and the Chief Marshal carrying the mace, the symbol of the University's corporate authority. The academic gowns, hoods, and caps, once the sober, disciplined dress of secular clergy and teachers, declare in their various designs and colors the academic qualifications of the Faculty. The citations and presentations by the Faculty to the Chancellor attest to him and to society the degree of proficiency attained by the students of the University. There follows a visible and public act whereby the universitas magistrorum, acting through its Chancellor, confers upon the students the appropriate degree. It is the act, not a certificate, which constitutes the validity of the degree bestowed. More, the formula, "I admit you" and the placing of the students' hands within the hands of the Chancellor and his associates, bind the students in the appropriate degree to the universitas magistrorum. The students thereafter bear for all time the mark of their association with this University. They have received what the University has been and presently is. Since they bear in themselves the promise of the future, they are what the University hopes to be. For all its solemnity, convocation is a joyous occasion.

The history of academic dress reaches far back into early days of the oldest universities. A statute of 1321 required that all "Doctors, Licentiates, and Bachelors" of the University of Coimbra wear gowns. In England, in the second half of the 14th century, the statutes of certain colleges forbade "excess apparel" and prescribed the wearing of a long gown. It is still a controversial question as to whether academic dress finds its sources chiefly in ecclesiastical or in civilian dress. Gowns may have been counted necessary for warmth in the unheated buildings frequented by medieval scholars. Hoods seem to have served to cover the tonsured head until superseded for that purpose by the skull cap. This was itself displaced by a headdress more or less like one or another of those now recognized as "academic." [The mortar board, the hard, square cap commonly used as academic headdress today, evolved from the softer, more flexible "square cap" that was introduced in England in about 1490 and is named for the square board on a handle used by stone masons for holding the mixed mortar to be applied to walls.] Both Cambridge and Oxford have made academic dress a matter of university control to the extent of even its minor details and have repeatedly issued revised regulations. In Laudian days in Oxford it was prescribed that any tailor who departed from authorized design "even by a nail's breadth" in the making of any article of collegiate costume was to be punished by the vice-chancellor of the university.

Academic dress at the University of Alberta generally follows the prescription of Cambridge University in the design of the gown, and that of Oxford University in the design of the hood. The following page provides a detailed description of the academic dress at this institution.

In addition to the apparel worn by holders of degrees conferred by the University of Alberta, a collection of apparel specific to particular offices has also been developed. The President of the University wears a green gown faced with gold braid trim and lining and a green cap with a gold tassel. The Chancellor and Chancellors Emeriti wear gowns of teal blue with silver trim and black caps with silver tassels. The gowns of the senior officials bear an embroidered crest of the University. University Governors and Senators wear stoles bearing the crest of the University over their gowns: gold for Governors and green for Senators. The University Registrar wears a green gown with gold trim on the sleeves.

Graduates and staff of the University of Alberta who wish to purchase their own academic apparel are invited to contact: Harcourt's Limited, 26-28 Duncan Street, Toronto, ON, M5V 2B9. Order forms may be obtained by contacting the Convocation Officer in the Office of the Registrar.

Doctorate Degrees

Doctors' gowns (PhD, DMus, and EdD) conform to the Intercollegiate Code in design. They are made of black material and the velvet trim on the sleeves is Philosophy Blue for the PhD and DMus, and Education Light Blue for the EdD. Doctor's hoods conform to the Intercollegiate Code in shape, size, and color. They are made of black material to match the gown, and have a full lining of gold satin with a six-inch green satin chevron. The velvet trim distinguishes the two degrees and matches the velvet trim on the gown's sleeves. There is a narrow green piping where the gold lining joins the black material. Mortarboards are the standard black trencher shape with black tassels, which are worn forward and to the left.

Honorary Doctorates

Honorary Doctors of Laws, Letters, and Science wear a scarlet robe faced with white silk. Hoods are made in the Cambridge form of scarlet silk with a full lining of white silk. Caps are black velvet with a gold tassel.

Her music has been performed in countries throughout the world including China, France, Italy, New Zealand, and Thailand.

Her achievements have been recognized with honorary degrees from McGill University (1971), University of Windsor (1986), University of Calgary (1989), and Mount Allison University (1992). Among Ms Archer's numerous awards and honors are Honorary Fellow of the Royal Canadian College of Organists, 1984 Canadian Composer of the Year, Order of Canada, Sir Frederick Haultain Prize, and the naming in her honor of a distinguished fellowship in music at the University of Alberta.

Ms Archer received her education at McGill and Yale Universities. She joined the University of Alberta in 1962 as Chair of Music Theory and Composition after having held positions at McGill University, Cornell University, University of Oklahoma, and North Texas State College. She was appointed professor emeritus when she retired from full-time teaching in 1978.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to Violet Archer.

Margaret L Huggins' Gio: Paolo Maggini, His Life and Work. Compiled and edited from material collected by William Ebsworth Hill and his sons William, Arthur, and Alfred. London: Novello, 1892. Maggini was the best-known of the Brescian School of violin makers and the volume of his work reflects the increased popularity of the violin in the early 17th century. His achievement was the creation of violins with a darker color and more depth of response than was known before and his instruments influenced the work of Stradivari and Guarneri. This handsomely illustrated volume is still the only source for Maggini's career.

Honorary Degree Recipient

President of Nagoya University of Commerce and Business Administration in Japan, Hiroshi Kurimoto founded the Koryo International College (a junior college for girls) in 1982 and established Japan's first graduate School of Management Information Systems at the Yuichi Memorial School of Business Administration. He was also instrumental in expanding the curriculum at Nagoya University to include a department of management information systems and a department of international economics. President Kurimoto's future plans include a new department of business law for Nagoya University.

President Kurimoto began his career in education in 1960 as a lecturer at Nagoya University and was appointed full professor in 1974. He assumed the presidency of Nagoya University in 1981 following the death of his father, and was the youngest university president in Japan at that time.

The Kurimoto family has a long association with the University of Alberta: his father was the first Japanese graduate from the University, and the family was instrumental in establishing and constructing the Kurimoto Japanese Garden at the Devonian Botanic Garden.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to Hiroshi Kurimoto.

Susan Allix', A Flora. London, 1992. This beautiful volume contains words about flowers from 16 authors as illustrated by one of England's foremost book artists. No displayed page can reveal the variety and artistry of these 23 prints using etching, mezzotint, woodcut, and stipple engraving. Many of them are hand-colored on hand-made papers, including special Japanese papers. The result is a bouquet of beautiful images with classical texts and is Number 17 of 26 copies hand-bound by the artist.

The list of candidates for degrees, diplomas, and certificates appearing herein is subject to such corrections, with respect to additions, deletions, and changes, as may be necessary. The information as presented is current as of the program printing deadline. Graduates attending the ceremony are presented to the Chancellor alphabetically, beginning with those graduates receiving their degrees "with distinction" or "with first class honors." The winner of the most prestigious award in each Faculty, if attending, is presented first.

Edgar Jones, noted naturalist, wildlife cinematographer and educator, spent more than 40 years as a conservationist. He has produced 10 films, his first in 1959 entitled Arctic Canada. Four of these films were aimed at increasing awareness of Canada and its natural history and were shown as travel adventure films encouraging tourism. Mr Jones also shot footage for a number of national and international television wildlife programs including Wild Kingdom, Untamed World, Nature of Things, Canada Outdoors (which he also co-hosted), and Lorne Greene's New Wilderness. As well, he has lectured extensively throughout North America for the National Audubon Society.

Mr Jones was founding member of the Edmonton Bird Club and co-founded the Alberta Wildlife Foundation. The Foundation's activities included arranging the purchase of properties for environmental education and research. The Foundation's work also included conservation-related activities such as publishing a brochure on what the public can do to preserve habitat through responsible land use.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to Edgar Jones.

Stephen Berg's Sea Ice, Versions of Eskimo Songs. Omaha: Cummington Press, 1988. Adapted from anthropologist Knud Rasmussen's first-hand transcriptions of Inuit songs collected in the 1920s, the 35 poems won Columbia University's translation prize in 1987. Berg, a fine American poet, has received many other awards as well. The freshness and intensity of these poems are achingly understandable. This lovely, modest volume is Number 132 of 292 first-edition copies printed by Harry Duncan.

The list of candidates for degrees, diplomas, and certificates appearing herein is subject to such corrections, with respect to additions, deletions, and changes, as may be necessary. The information as presented is current as of the program printing deadline. Graduates attending the ceremony are presented to the Chancellor alphabetically, beginning with those graduates receiving their degrees "with distinction" or "with first class honors." The winner of the most prestigious award in each Faculty, if attending, is presented first.

Levko Lukianenko, appointed Ukraine's first ambassador to Canada in May 1992, was instrumental in organizing the Ukrainian popular movement, Rukh, to promote democratization and national rights. He was also heavily involved in the emerging political group, the Ukrainian Helsinki Union, and was chosen its first leader in 1990 when it became a political party and was renamed the Ukrainian Republican Party. In the same year he was elected to Ukraine's parliament and became deputy leader of the democratic opposition, the National Council. Mr Lukianenko became a member of the parliament's constitutional committee in 1991 and helped draft Ukraine's Declaration of Independence of August 24, 1991.

As a political prisoner, Mr Lukianenko spent more than 25 years in prisons, labor camps, or exile. He was first arrested by Soviet authorities in 1961. When he was released in 1976 he co-founded the Ukrainian Helsinki Group which promoted human rights in the former Soviet Union. In 1977 he was arrested and sentenced to 15 years again, 10 in prison and 5 in exile. He was in exile in Siberia when he was allowed to return to Ukraine in 1989.

Mr Lukianenko graduated with a law degree from Moscow State University and, in addition to Ukrainian, speaks English, Russian, and Polish.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to Levko Lukianenko.

Pravda (Truth). Lviv, (T-vo imeni Shevchenka), 1878. Two volumes. This is not the Russian newspaper but the literary, scholarly, and political Ukrainian journal of the 19th century. Published at various times in Lviv between 1867 and 1896 it was the main intellectual organ for Galician populists until the establishment of Dilo in 1880, and thus, the most important journal of its time. These works are the rare and fragile two-volume miscellany of 1878 edited by Volodymyr Barvinsky.

The list of candidates for degrees, diplomas, and certificates appearing herein is subject to such corrections, with respect to additions, deletions, and changes, as may be necessary. The information as presented is current as of the program printing deadline. Graduates attending the ceremony are presented to the Chancellor alphabetically, beginning with those graduates receiving their degrees "with distinction" or "with first class honors." The winner of the most prestigious award in each Faculty, if attending, is presented first.

Honorary Degree Recipients

Helen Forrester is the author of 14 novels and a number of short stories. She is known for her books about life in Liverpool (she was born in Cheshire, England), some of which are autobiographical. Her first novel, Alien There is None, was published in 1959 and her recent works include Yes, Mama (1987) and The Lemon Tree (1990). Ms Forrester's books are also available on cassette and in large print.

Among Ms Forrester's honors and awards are an honorary

Doctor of Letters from the University of Liverpool, Alberta Achievement Award 1979 for Literature, YWCA Woman of the Arts Award (1987), Alberta Culture's Literary Award (1986), and the Writers Guild of Alberta Fiction Award (1989). She was also the writer-in-residence at the Edmonton Public Library in 1991.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to Helen Forrester.

Geoffrey Wakeman's Victorian Colour Printing (Loughborough, Leicestershire): The Plough Press, 1981. This excellent essay documents the evolution of various colour printing processes explored and perfected by the Victorians in their exuberantly imaginative and popular books. Number 44 of 150 copies, it is an instructive work with 11 actual samples including relief printing and chromolithography.

Under the leadership of James R Shaw, Sr., Shaw Cablesystems Ltd has become the third largest multi-systems operator in Canada. Mr Shaw is a director of Shaw Industries Ltd, which provides products and services to energy-related industries from plants located in Canada, the United States, the United Kingdom, and Australia, and he served as chairman of the board of that company until 1988.

In addition to holding directorships in several

Canadian public companies, Mr Shaw is extremely active in the community, serving as chairman of the Northern Alberta Institute of Technology (NAIT) board of governors and led its recent capital fundraising campaign. He is a member of the University's President's Council and is a member of the Edmonton Art Gallery President's Circle Club.

Mr Shaw holds a BA from Michigan State University. He has been recognized for his extensive involvement and commitment to the Canadian cable television industry including the receipt of the industry's highest award, the Honors List in 1992. More recently, he was the recipient of the 1992-93 Entrepreneur of the Year Award, presented annually to recognize outstanding achievements in business.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to James R Shaw, Sr.

(Joseph Holt Ingraham) Lafitte: The Pirate of the Gulf. By the author of "The South West." New York: Harper, 1836. Two volumes. This fine copy of the first edition is the rarest and most important of the American pirate romances. It is one of the earliest fictional accounts of the life of Jean Lafitte, the extraordinary "gentleman pirate" who supplied the only navy participating in Andrew Jackson's defense of New Orleans against the British in the War of 1812. This colorful tale depicts Lafitte's operations in Louisiana and Galveston and is one of the very first novels about the American Southwest.

Graduates

The information as presented is current as of the program printing deadline. Graduates attending the ceremony are presented to the Chancellor alphabetically, beginning with those graduates receiving their degrees "with distinction" or "with first class honors." # Honorary Degree Recipient

Ray Fortune, the former President and CEO of TRLabs (Telecommunications Research Laboratories) from 1986 to 1992, spearheaded the company's growth from a single laboratory seven years ago to three laboratories today in Edmonton, Calgary, and Saskatoon, with a fourth likely to be added in Winnipeg. The tri-partite sponsorship approach of TRLabs—academic, government, and industry—is open-ended, with multiple university, multiple government (provincial and federal), and multiple industry sponsors across the provinces. The company began with three sponsors and now boasts 18.

TRLabs, under Mr Fortune's leadership, is considered the leading pre-competitive telecommunications research and development (R&D) consortium in Canada. Mr Fortune has also been a driving force in raising the profile of the advanced technology sector in Alberta through his involvement in such organizations as the Edmonton Council for Advanced Technology (ECAT), the Edmonton Economic Development Authority (EEDA), and through special events such as the Premier's Forum on Electronics and the Forum on R&D Consortia.

Pedro Salgvero's Vida Del Venerable Padre, y Exemplarissimo Varon El Maestro Fr. Diego Basalenque.... Rome: Heirs of Barbielini, 1760. The life of celebrated missionary Father Diego Basalenque (d. 1651) is chronicled in this volume. Father Basalenque spent most of his life in Mexico and was considered learned in many fields. His knowledge included such languages as Latin, Greek, Hebrew, and several Mexican tongues; he wrote an important compilation on the language of the Matlazinkas. He was regarded as a man of holiness as well as learning. Still bound in its original vellum covers, this is a significant addition to the library's Javitch Collection of Amerindian rare books.

Graduates

The list of candidates for degrees, diplomas, and certificates appearing herein is subject to such corrections, with respect to additions, deletions, and changes, as may be necessary. The information as presented is current as of the program printing deadline. Graduates attending the ceremony are presented to the Chancellor alphabetically, beginning with those graduates receiving their degrees "with distinction" or "with first class honors." The winner of the most prestigious award in each Faculty, if attending, is presented first.

This Convocation Program is printed on recycled paper containing at least 50% recycled fiber including 10% post-consumer waste paper.

If you can, please share this program with a companion. Then, if you do not take it home, please leave it (in good repair) on the table outside the doors as you exit the auditorium. This will help us ensure that someone else can use it on another day of Convocation, and subsequently conserve paper.
Thank you for your assistance.
